112. GUIDANCE COUNSELING

- .1 A planned program of guidance counseling is an integral part of the educational program of the schools. Such a program can:
 - .11 assist students in achieving their optimum growth
 - .12 enable students to draw the greatest benefit from the offerings of the instructional program of the schools
 - .13 aid students in identifying options and making choices in vocational and academic educational planning
 - .14 assist students in career awareness and planning.

- .2 A program of guidance and counseling shall be offered to all students in grades kindergarten through twelfth, and shall involve the coordinated efforts of all staff members under the professional leadership of certificated guidance and counseling personnel.
