North Pole Night

The snow all white
I shall stay the night
At this wonderful loving house
|| That in the crisp air
The reindeer arouse
Jolly man and caring woman stand there
Welcome me into a place
Where I can eat at my pace
I feel that I now am home
I know who they are
As well as those from afar
Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus
They are warm and sweet
Give me milk and cookies to eat
I'm glad the North Pole is my home.
